The Cocoa Village – participate, contribute and connect

Based on the method of the « World Café » provided freely on the web at www.theworldcafe.com
The “World Cocoa” – key questions to discuss

The “Cocoa Village” - two sessions a 30-45 minutes with 2 topics:

What are your personal success stories in the sustainable production and use of cocoa?

What are your challenges in implementing best known practices in the cocoa chain?

Quelles sont vos réussites personnelles en matière de production et de consommation durables de cacao ?

Producción y consumo sostenibles del cacao: ¿cuáles son sus experiencias personales de éxito?

Quels sont les défis à relever pour la mise en place des meilleures pratiques connues dans votre filière cacao ?

¿Con qué retos se enfrenta a la hora de aplicar las mejores prácticas conocidas en la cadena del cacao?
The “World Cocoa” – the setting

1. Cocoa tables
   • English, French and Spanish tables
   • One moderator per table
   • One rapporteur per table – appointed by the moderator
   • Max. 10 guests per table

2. Table moderator and rapporteur
   • Welcomes « guests »
   • Moderator introduces question
   • Moderator leads discussions
   • Rapporteur visualizes results and names of guests

3. « Cocoa Village » guests
   • Introduce themselves with a key statement to the question
   • Contribute their knowledge, thinking and ideas
   • Help to visualize results

4. Results - poster gallery
   • Some moderators will be asked to present the results to the plenary
   • All results will be displayed in the poster gallery in the foyer and on the Roundtable website
The “Cocoa Village” – how it works

1. All tables discuss in one language only (there are English, French and Spanish tables)
2. All tables discuss one question only (either A or B)
3. After 30-45 minutes, moderators ask their guests to mix with other participants and discuss the other question at a different table
4. Table moderators invite up to 10 guests to their table
5. The table moderator presents the question
6. « Guests » introduce themselves and make a key statement
7. A discussion follows
8. The rapporteur structures and visualizes the results
9. Some results are presented in Plenary
10. All results are presented in the poster gallery and on the Roundtable website
